

Our project is an image mapping of a region, so for project 8 I chose to analyze twitter data to come up with a recommendation for where to buy clothes in a mall, under the assumption that a mall has been image mapped. However, I was not able to find many tweets related to this, and even after gathering twitter data for over 5 minutes, I still did not have enough data to provide any real recommendations.